Tralee Addreſſes.

(42

To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY,

The Humble

ADDRESS,

Of the Proveſt, Burgeſſes and Freemen, of the Antient Proteſtant Borrough of Tralee, ſigned on the happy Day of his Majeſty's Coronation.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, do with moſt Profound Reverence, beg leave to approach Your Sacred Throne, to expreſs our moſt exalted Joy, by rendring unfeigned Thanks to the King of Kings; for the Accompliſhment of his imparralel'd Bleſſing, in placing over us a Prince, who beſides his being Mighty in Battle, Matchleſs in Wiſdom, and truely Capable of Inſtructing a Warlike Nation, in the Arts of Peace; brings the Additional Happineſs of a Son, worthy to ſucceed ſo great a Father.

Tho' we are ſcituate ſo remote from Your Royal Preſence, yet we pretend ſome more than common Claim to your Favour, having very Signally ſuffered for the Proteſtant Intereſt, and our Zeal for Your Houſe, not only in the Times of Barefae'd Popery, but even of late when it appeared in Maſquerade, and Your Majeſty's Succeſſion was Traiterouſly ſtruck at, by ill deſigning People.

KING WILLIAM of Immortal Memory then was, as Your Majeſty now is our ASYLUM, and this alone ſurpaſſes all the other Glories of that great Man: That by his indefatigable Care of the Succeſſion in Your moſt Illuſtrious Family, he Obiviated a Danger greater than what he had reſcued us from before.

As they are and always have been, the truely noble Attributes of Your Royal Family, to Reward their Friends, and do Juſtice to their Enemies: So we can never ſufficiently Admire the Wiſdom of Providence, in making our inteſtine Jar (which we dreaded as the foundation of our Ruin, the happy Inſtruments of leting you know Your faſt Friends and ſecret Enemies.

By Your Majeſties firm Settlement in Your Kingdoms, we look upon all hopes of a Popiſh Pretender, to be ſo Groundleſs that we are almoſt aſhamed to mention what is ſo much our contempt: But ſhould his Vanity beguile him to attempt landing in any of Your Dominions; We beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we are ready to venture our Lives and Fortunes in Oppoſing him, or any that ſhall be ſo Fool-hardy to ſupport or aſſiſt him.

GREAT SIR,

That the Continuance of Your Reign may be as Long and Happy, as the Beginning is Glorious; and that we may never want a Succeſſor of Your ROYAL LYNE to Rule over us, are, and ſhall be the conſtant and daily Prayers and Wiſhes of, May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Your Majeſtie's moſt Dutiful and Faithful Subjects.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty

The Humble

ADDRESS

Of the high Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Protestant Inhabitants of the County of Kerry, at the Assizes held at Tralee, the 2d Day of April, 1715.

May it Please your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's Protestant Subjects of this County, do, with the utmost pleasure embrace the Opportunity; which this our first general Meeting gives us, unanimously to congratulate Your Majesty's peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. It is not without the justest Transports of Joy that we see the Succession in the Illustrious House of HANOVER (so directly Struck at lately) Firmly Establish'd, in spight of the avowed Principles and open Practices of the Enemies to Your Majesty and us, who would Destroy the Happiness we enjoy under it, by defeating that SUCCESSION; but when we Reflect that it has taken Place in the Person of Your Sacred Majesty, our Pleasure is unexpressible: Never surely was Joy more Great and Universal among all honest Men; Never indeed was there greater reason for it: For at the time, when the Melancholly Prospect before us, laid us under the highest Dispair; when Papists met with Encouragement from those that ought to have Discountenanced and Suppressed them, by putting the Laws against them in Execution, when we were Insulted by Jacobites, and Jacobitism appear'd Barefac'd; when the Enemies of our Constitution, and the present happy Establishment were Triumph'd; and when, to make the Measure of our Distraction compleat, we were under the justest Apprehension of having a Pretender (in consequence of a Peace Destructive in its Stipulations of the Trade and Interest of these Nations, as it was Fatal and Clandestine in its Conclusion) Imposed on us at such a Juncture of time, when our All was at Stake to see, being under the more immediate Care of Providence, the Crown Devolve on Your sacred Majesty; and thereby to find our two Well-grounded Fears vanish'd, are Occurrences that can be remembered with sufficient Satisfaction: It would be the highest Injustice done to the Ashes of our Deliverer, the Great and Glorious King WILLIAM, not to mention him on this Occasion; with that Honour so justly due to his Memory, we should be highly wanting to our selves, if we fail'd to express our Gratitude for the Concern he discovered in all the Actions of his Life to make us a happy People, both which appeared in none more Eminently then in his Care in providing for our future Tranquility, by Settling the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms on Your Majesty's Illustrious Family. We have now nothing to apprehend from the daring Malice of our most Inviterate Enemies, while we Live under the Protection of a King, who Evinces by his Wise Administration, and his prudent Choice of an Able, as well as of an Honest Faithful Ministry, that he has nothing more at Heart, than the Prosperity and Happiness of his People; and who declares, that as the Laws shall be the Measure of the Subjects Obedience, so the Preservation of their Rights and Liberties to them, of the Constitution in Church and State, shall be the Rule of his Government: Nor does our Prospect of Happiness end with Your Sacred Majesty's inestimable Life, (which God long Preserve) since Your Majesty is like to leave the Crown to a Prince, who will (as your Majesty does) give an Additional List to it, by the many and great Qualities he is Master of, to be by him, when it shall please God to take him from us, transmitted to his Royal Issue.

These are Blessings which we can't re-collect without inconceivable Pleasure, and such as we hope will plainly Justify our Address to your Majesty, to proceed from the Hearts of Men, who overflow with Sense of their Happiness, who therefore are resolved to Post-pone all other Considerations to those of Your Majesty's Service; and who will upon all Occasions hazard all that is Dear to them for your Majesty's Intereſt, and their Desire of appearing in the Maintenance with Sincerity.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most Dutiful, most Loyal and most Faithful Subjects and Servants.

DUBLIN Printed by John [illegible] in Arundal-Court.

81-6342